"Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low-vaulted past!
Let each new temple, nobler than the last,
Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast,
Till thou at length art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea!"

Lux in tenebris

Lux in tenebris, Alma Mater,
Built upon the rock eternal,
Fountain rock of living water,
Kindled by the Light supernal,
With unceasing Power increasing
In whose light we see the light

CHORUS

Lux in tenebris, Alma Mater,
Lux in tenebris, luce.

Lux in tenebris, Alma Mater,
May thy light be never dimmed;
Watch thou, therefore, Zion's daughter,
Keep thy lamp well oiled and trimmed,
While light giving, Light receiving
From the Fountain head of light.

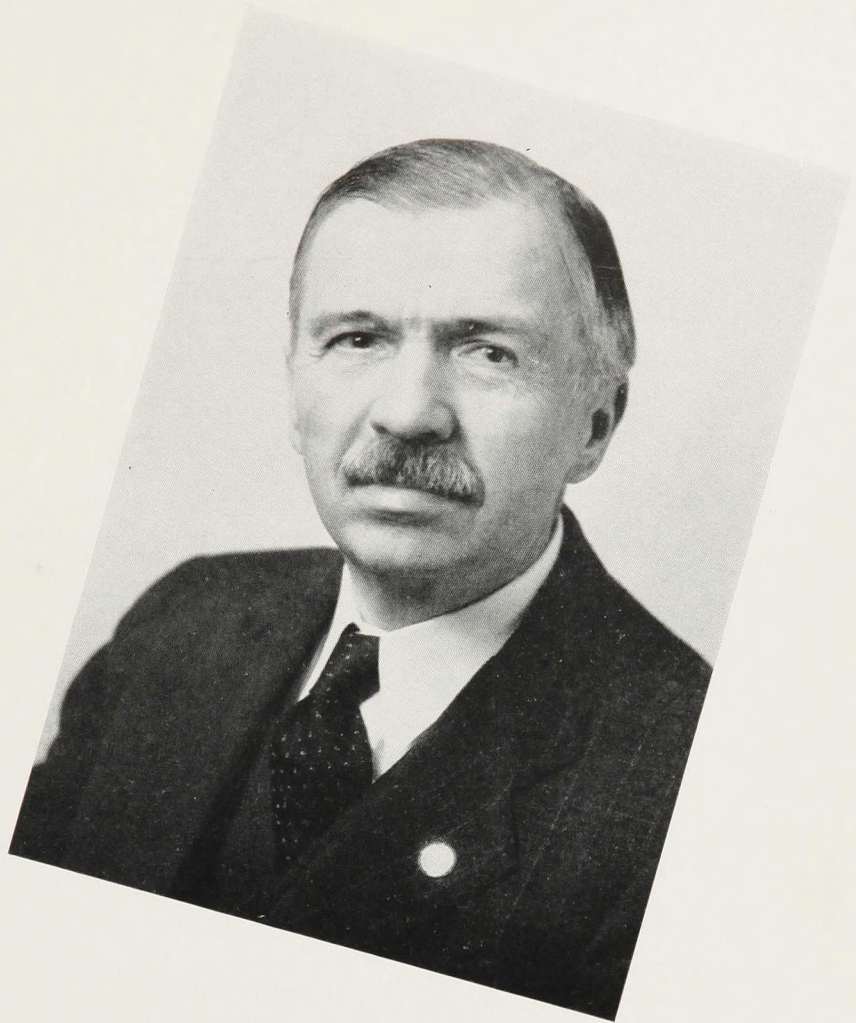

Lux in tenebris, Alma Mater,
Into darkness light to carry,
Send thy sons o'er land and water.
Each a living luminary.
Self-consuming while illumining,
Those that have not seen the light.

Lux in tenebris, Luminary,
Glory full of truth and grace;
Let the world perceive Thy glory
And behold Thee face to face.
Apprehending, Comprehending,
Jesus, Saviour, Light of Light.

Dr. John Dikovics has ministered to the intellectual development of the students of this institution for thirty years. His earnest devotion to his Alma Mater and keen interest in student affairs have endeared him to the hearts of all. Therefore, we, the Class of 1939, respectfully dedicate this volume with the hope that it will serve as a tribute to him.

President's Message

To the Class of 1939:

Life is the supreme test. The examinations in the classroom have a proving value, but their results are not always a true index to ability and worth. In your course in the world you will constantly be confronted with situations that must be answered by word or deed. As you have passed successfully here, we hope you will meet life's searching trials with like results.

Your education is yet in its initial state. Acquaint yourselves with the wisdom of the ages and keep abreast of the thought of the time. Make your own contribution to the enlightenment and life of the world. Shew yourselves worthy and take your place in the vanguard rather than in the rear of the marching column.

May the riches of Divine Grace be your precious and lasting possession!

Very sincerely yours,

JOSEPH HUNTER,

PRESIDENT.

Man in his search for power and wealth has become a materialistic machine. "How can I make money?" is the question of thousands living today. Modern education, too, has been caught in the trend of the age and where once ethical and cultural values reigned supreme King Midas now goes about turning all to gold. And as he, so men today are finding that there must be something more to life than just the glitter and glamour of a golden goal. They have been making a living and, in doing so, have failed to make a life. Where love should rule, the lust for gain rules out all else. This is the world we must enter; but we enter it with the optimism of youth. In the faith of Christ, who said, "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly," we shall go forth to make a life, and in making it, show others the way to the more abundant life through Him.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1939 of Bloomfield College and Seminary, of the Town of Bloomfield in the County of Essex in the State of New Jersey, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, do on this eighteenth day of May in the Year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and thirty-nine, make and publish this our last Will and Testament, that is to say we do hereby will and bequeath

First, Paul Motin's athletic prowess to "D.D."
Second, Van's "weigh" to D'Arco.
Third, Ashton's methods of "Socializing" to Gardinier.
Fourth, Padula's sense of humor to Eisenminger.
Fifth, Clè's "glamour" to Lena.
Sixth, Kovach's politics to Todaro
Seventh, Mesteller's "pull with the coach" to Scalise.
Eighth, Liebig's "giggles" to Pooley.
Ninth, Turdo's quietness to Val.
Tenth, Curto's curls to the girls.

WE FURTHER BEQUEATH

First, To Professor Urband a book of hilarious jokes with which to amuse the unsuspecting Freshmen.
Second, To Professor Taylor more European Crises to talk about.
Third, To Professor Bitgood even greater fields to conquer with her Choir.
And FINALLY to the Freshmen, Sophomores and Juniors, a passing look not too, too patronizing.

REMEMBER:

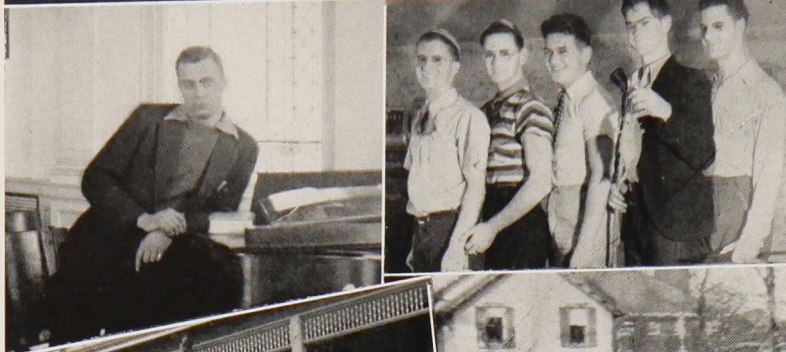

You can always tell a Freshman by his high and mighty air.
You can always tell a Sophomore by the way he combs his hair.
You can always tell a Junior by his dignity and such.
You can always tell a Senior but you cannot tell him much.

In witness Thereof, we have set our seal to this document as we leave the halls of our school.

JUNIOR CLASS

President	Valentine Harto
Vice-President	Michael Farkas
Secretary	Ann Mancini
Treasurer	Lewis N. Raymond

The years fly by and the class that once found themselves freshmen, green in more ways than one, now find themselves Juniors well established in the traditions and ideals of their alma mater. Taking up early in their life together the cry, "A house divided cannot stand" they have presented to their fellow students the picture of a class united, each member working for the common good of all. Truly they represent a group of young men and women of whom Bloomfield need never be ashamed.

Last year we were mere freshmen, venturing into new and strange grounds. With confidence and a bit of defiance we undertook our new tasks and did them well. We faltered and fell, but only to rise again as Sophomores, free from the stronghold of our upperclassmen.

We look back with pleasure, not forgetting what is in store for us ahead, our goal. We journey toward it apprehensive and a little less defiant.

FRESHMAN CLASS

President	John Earl
Vice-President	Donald Wilson
Secretary	Betty Hoelzer

Although this year's Freshman Class and the future Senior Class of 1942 has not yet had much time in which to show its "true colors," it has started off with a bang! During the school year they not only had social times together but sponsored a New Year's Party for the entire school.

We prophesy great things to come from this group of students who have remarkable school spirit.

The Student Christian Association is an organization open to all students. Its function is to legislate and administer all activities which affect the entire student body. Its purpose is to promote the religious, educational, and social welfare of all students. The Student Christian Association has attempted to face this responsibility by setting up a program which is sufficiently broad to encompass all interests. All students are urged to find their places in its endeavors.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council experienced a temporary set-back in their newly formed organization. The keen desire to serve was dulled by a loose, ill-guided organization so the set-back was not due to spiritual vigor.

Therefore, in order to avoid extinction, the Council receded in order to make progress more certain in the future. Other Student Council organizations are being studied and suggestions are being invited to lay a sure foundation.

However, a number of constructive improvements have been accepted by the faculty in the past year, and the Council looks forward to a stronger, more useful function in the affairs of our rapidly progressing College and Seminary.

FELLOWSHIP LEAGUE

"For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth."—Romans 1:16

One of the greatest factors which contributes to the Spiritual Growth of the students is the Fellowship League. Devotional meetings are held each week with different students leading and giving a message. On various occasions there has been special music and also visiting speakers. The fine attendance during the past year can be attributed to the well-balanced programs of joyful singing, prayer, and Gospel messages.

THE CHOIR

One of the most active organizations on the campus is the Choir. Since its inception there has been a marked improvement in the quality of its productions. Besides singing daily in the chapel services, it has been heard by thousands in churches throughout the Greater Metropolitan Area. It has especially been commended for its fine rendering of many a cappella selections. During the Lenten Season Stainer's "Crucifixion" was performed. Sponsored by the Senior Class a concert of sacred music was given in the Westminster Church. For the third consecutive year a Gilbert and Sullivan operetta was presented. This year's production was the "Mikado."

Through the ardent efforts of Miss Roberta Bitgood, the director, the choir has attained a success which has earned for Bloomfield a name which will ever be associated with the loftiest ideals of music.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Under the direction of Miss Roberta Bitgood the most recently organized group in our school has already gained fame for itself. On three occasions the Men's Glee Club enjoyed success in their vocal endeavors. The initial appearance of this group was at the Thanksgiving service in our chapel. At this time the student body acclaimed this fine group of voices a success. Succeeding appearances were made at S.C.A. socials where the rendering of secular music was appreciated.

This year the Men's Glee Club joined with the choir in their production of Gilbert and Sullivan's Operetta, "The Mikado."

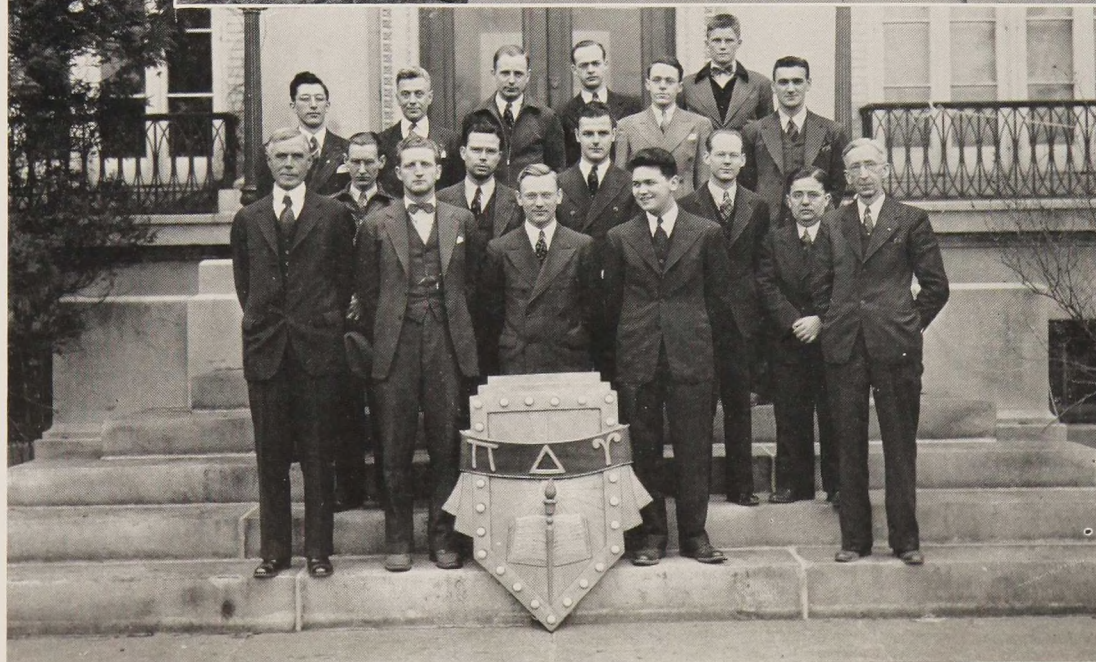

ARISTA

The Arista Society was organized with the purpose of encouraging cultural interests among the students. The Activities of this group consist in the sponsoring of various programs which foster the appreciation of art, music, and literature.

The major undertaking of this society is the publication of "The Arista" which has come to be regarded as the school paper.

The worth of an organization is judged not by the ideals which it holds but by the principles which it successfully maintains. With this in mind, the men of Lambda Rho have labored zealously in service and sacrifice for the benefit of others both within and without the limits of their circle, and have found their life enriched thereby. While they may not have completely avoided superficiality and ostentation in their work, yet they press on towards the mark for the prize of the high calling, realizing that success is only achieved through an attempt.

BASKETBALL

Once more the traditions of the Maroon and Gold have been upheld. The College Quintet has met formidable foes and has downed and has been downed in turn but never with disgrace. Our opponents have never, this season, been "easy marks"; victories have been merited and defeats never suffered with humiliation or lack of cooperation.

The varsity men of last season have proven a bulwark around which the new material has been built. It was against such an aggregation that New College twice suffered defeat, The New York Aggies, St. John's College of Pharmacy, New Brunswick Seminary, and other worthy aggressors have felt the crushing power of Bloomfield's court quintet. The record of which we are proud stands at eight defeats and six victories.

In their second year the Archery Squad has been active, both in intramural competition and against prominent visiting archers. Although their activities to date have been limited they still look forward with enthusiasm to meeting and defeating outstanding opponents next season. As yet this sport is in its infancy but with the vigor and eagerness displayed on the part of the members, it will soon come forward as a prominent sporting event.

How a
NEW JERSEY BOY
became
SUCCESSFUL

He worked his way through college. He sold books, magazines, stoked furnaces and waited on tables. He deposited the money he earned in a Savings Account in a New Jersey Mutual Savings Bank. When he was graduated, he had about $2,800 in the bank.

That sum carried him through his first difficult years of business life. Later he was made a member of the firm of which he is now the head.

The Bloomfield Savings Institution has witnessed many similar experiences during its 67 years' existence. The basis of each individual success has been the practice of Thrift and Saving.

Full Speed Ahead —

AND WHEN WE SAY FULL, we mean just that! When the keel was laid for this business ship twenty-seven years ago, the course was set along channels plainly marked with SERVICE, QUALITY and GOOD WORKMANSHIP. We've cleared the harbor, our sails are full, there's deep water 'neath our bow, and we're going places! By the way, the 1939 Saga is a product of our presses.
